ANTI-CLUBBING CRUSADE.

Two Lieutenants Found Guilty of Delaying Reports.

Commissioner Cropsey will fix the punishment to be imposed upon Lieuts. Abraham Skidmore and William Rochester, who were found guilty to-day by Third Deputy Commissioner Waish at Brooklyn Polica Headquarters of having violated the order issued by Mayor

Gaynor about a year ago that all complaints by citizens that they had been assaulted by policemen must be reported promptly. Mr. Waish said that the officers were liable to dismissail from the force, but that he would put the matter up to his superior.

Skidmore was twelve hours late in reporting the complaint made at 2 A. M., July 29, by Mary Englehardt that she had been assaulted by a policeman. Rochester was four hours late in reporting the complaint of William Twilling violated the order issued by Mayor
